Call Of Participation

All Ophthalmologists who are doing a highly specialized graduate program in any of the different specialties of Ophthalmology (Scholarship, Subspecialty, Fellowship, etc.) are invited to submit a research paper to:

OFTAFELLOW LATAM 2022

The course will take place in person next Friday, November 25 and Saturday, November 26, 2022 in Mexico City, Mexico.

OFTAFELLOW is a meeting for Ophthalmology fellows who are carrying out a program in a country of the American continent. The objectives are:

1) High-level updating, in various Ophthalmology specialties focused on key knowledge, as well as practical and useful skills for future professional practices. With the presentations and research, the attendee will learn the current state of knowledge in Ophthalmology, line of research, and different practice patterns. The course includes workshops and special conferences to provide the fellow valuable tools for their professional development beyond the clinic. (Entrepreneurship, administration, finance, legal, etc.)

2) Networking. OFTAFELLOW is a space for Ophthalmologists in training to meet their peers from other places and countries, share and contrast experiences, create links and generate productive professional networks.

To accomplish these objectives, your participation in this summit is essential, which is exclusive for fellows who are in an official endorsed program. To participate, you must be registered in the event, meet the requirements, and send your work by the deadline.

To see the summits technical specification, see Annex:

Notes:

All fellows who attend OFTAFELLOW in person must submit a research paper as the main author; they can be coauthors of other research papers but being coauthor does not count as participation. For all the fellows that are not attending in person, the submission of papers is optional.

The papers are the property of the main author who will assume responsibility for the coauthors when submitting.

The papers must be submitted in a timely manner.

There will be an evaluation of the work submitted for the contest and the best one will receive recognition during the meeting and the top 3 research works will also be awarded.

We appreciate your participation.

Sincerely

Dr. Jesús Jiménez Román
Chairman
OFTAFELLOW

Dr. Axel Orozco Hernández
Coordinador Académico
OFTAFELLOW
